WHAT WE DO

We are a consumer-centric, multi-disciplinary design and manufacturing company with four core disciplines:

1. Retail
2. Environments
3. Exhibitions
4. Brand Communications

OUR HERITAGE

Founded in 1989, originally as 'The Co' we have established ourselves as a highly respected company, with a reputation for our innovation, quality and cost effective solutions within the retail sector.

WHAT TCO IS KNOWN FOR

Historically, our heritage lies in our work in the traditional retail sector. However, over the years we have developed a multi-disciplinary and integrated approach reaching consumers through every point of inter-action and as a result our work has extended to environments, exhibitions and brand communications.

WHAT WE'VE DONE

Since our formation, our work and commitment to high standards in design, project management, manufacture and installation has enabled us to work with a wide variety of clients throughout the UK, Europe and the USA.

WHO WE WORK FOR

Our clients represent many different sectors, companies and brands – both large and small. Industry sectors we work in include retail high street, consumer services, financial and professional services, exhibitions, local government, automotive and airport environments.

WHERE WE ARE

We are centrally located in the UK providing the perfect base to service all our UK clients with our manufacturing plant located in East Anglia.
